Maronite Saints

St. Domitius

Feast Day: August 7

Artwork by Fr. Paul Moorrad

There are numerous stories about Domitius and his devotion is widespread in Lebanon. There may have been, in fact, two saints who bore this name. One was a Persian monk who lived in Nisibus during the fourth century. He lived as a hermit on Mount Qoroch and was noted for his preaching and healing miracles. He suffered martyrdom under the pagan emperor Julian the Apostate in the year 363. Another tradition reports that Domitius was a minister in the court of the Byzantine emperor Valens who was an Arian. Domitius encouraged the emperor to persecute the Orthodox Christians until he was afflicted with arthritis. As a result he was converted from Arianism and became a hermit. He cured many who were suffering from arthritis and is now considered as the patron of those who suffer from the disease. He died at the beginning of the fourth century. May his prayers be with us. Amen.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Mr. Tom Anthony as he joins the Order of Saint Sharbel in the Eparchy of Saint Maron of Brooklyn.

The Order of Saint Sharbel is an organization of lay people and clergy who have pledged their spiritual strength and financial support for Our Lady of Lebanon Seminary and the retired Maronite clergy of the Maronite Eparchies in the USA.

The Order of Saint Sharbel has two levels of membership (annual members pay $500 a year; and perpetual members make a $5000 lifetime contribution.)

If you would like more information about the Order, please let me know.
